$50 FOR FAKE FIRE BADGE. Latest Instance of Crooks' Work Causes Waldo to Issue Warning.

Two men who said they were collectors from the New York Fire Department Benevolent Association, went to Milton Well of the firm of Siegman & Weil, 77 Wooster street, about a month ago. Mr. the men said: "You have been helping us out for some years. If there is anything we can do for you you may be sure we shall doit." Mr. Weil had long wanted a fire badge and said so.

"All right," one of the men replied. The check came back indorsed "The New York Fire Department Benevolent Association, Edward Murphy, agent." further indorsed with the name of William J. Byrne. Then Weil received a telephone message saying that he could have the fire badge if he would deposit $50, which would be returned to him when he sur-rendered the badge. Then a man came rendered the badge. Then a man came to his office with a small package in which. he said, was the fire badge. It proved to be a fake badge.
